CATTLE OFF AT MT. STERLING COURT SALES

The Mt. Sterling Sentinel says that cattle were decidedly off at court day sales there this week. Its report says:

There were more than two thousand cattle on the market here and prices were considerably lower than last court day when many of the mountain traders lost money on the cattle they brought to the market, in spite of the fact that prices were off, as will be seen from a number of sales reported below, the cattle did not move rapidly and many were left water is scarce in many sections, in the pens. Grass is short and with the uncertain market conditions farmers hesitated at buying.

Good fat heifers sold at 6 cents, other heifers at 5 1-2c; general run of heifers, 5c; cows, young and fat, 5c, older fat cows, 3c to 4c; steers sold at from 6c to 6 1-4 cents. Some of the best sales are: Mike Wilson sold to Sam Whitehead 9 750-pound steers at 6 1-2c per pound; H. C. Combs sold to steers at 6 1-4 cents; Letcher Cynthia parties, 5 510-pound Byrd, of Bourbon county, bought from H. C. Combs, 12 steers and heifers, weight 535 pounds average, at 5 cents; James Ruff sold to Frank Burroughs, of Bourbon, 6 650-pound steers at 5 1-2 cents; Mike Wilson sold to Sam Laythrum 12 heifers, fat, at 6 cents; Jess Highland bought from Mike Wilson 8 heifers, 320 pounds, at 5 1-2 cents per pound; William Bryant sold to Frank Burroughs 7 steers, averaging 700 pounds, at 6 1-4c; Wm. Cravens, sold at auction two small steers at $12.75 each; John McDonald bought of John Moore 3 800-pound cows at 5 cents; A. C. Ratliff sold to John McDonald 2 740-pound cows at 5 cents; Jams Napier sold to Sam Laythrum 1 980-pound cow at 5 cents per pound; W. M. Collins sold 5 heifers, 600-pound weight, at 5 cents; W. T. Watson, of Georgetown, sold 40 head of 600-pound heifers to Marcus Johnson, of Scott county, at $32 per head; he also sold to J. C. Gaitskill two heifers at $53; Kelsel Murphy sold 13 heifers for a total of $360 to J. S. Hamilton, of Levee; W. L. Byrd sold 5 cows 1000-pounds, at 4 3-4c; Charles Blanton sold to Richardson Bros., 2 900-pound cows at 4 3-4c, and also 17 400-pound heifers to Bourbon parties for 6 1-4c.

SWIFT PRODUCE REVIEW

A liberal supply of butter has been received on the leading markets and prices have shown some decline toward the end of the week. A good deal of under-scoring butter has been received on the markets during the week, indicating that better care of cream in the country is necessary.

Continued high temperatures throughout the producing sections have affected the quality of eggs marketed, although there is a little easier feeling at the close of the week.

The volume of live poultry moving during the week has not been sufficient to current consumption and some advance has been noted in both consuming and producing territory. An increase in the supply of broilers and fryers has been noted and these classes of poultry are bringing good prices.

Famous Educator Dead

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Ky., June 25—Geo. Frederick Blessing, dean of the engineering department of Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Penn., and one of the foremost engineers and educators of this country, died today at his summer home at Bayview, Michigan, according to a message received here today. He was born at Carrollton, Ky., July 2, 1875. He was employed by various companies for several years and in 1918 went to Swarthmore.

John B. Stanchfield Dead

(By Associated Press)

New York, June 25—John B. Stanchfield, a New York lawyer, who appeared in many important cases, died today at Islip, Long Island, of kidney trouble. Stanchfield figured in the Thaw case when his pleadings had much to do with the release of Harry K. Thaw, from Mattewan. He also appeared in cases involving important corporations.

Four Operations For Appendicitis

(By Associated Press)

Glasgow, Ky., June 25—One operation for appendicitis is generally enough for one person but Vernon Jackson had to have four before he was through. He was brought here recently and the offending organ finally removed. Three times before he underwent an operation but each time the appendix was not in condition that would permit its removal.

An Old Flour Barrel

(By Associated Press)

Glasgow, Ky., June 25—T. S. Britt, of this city, is using as a flour storage barrel a barrel that was brought from Louisville sixty years ago during a wheat shortage in this county. The barrel has been in daily use during the entire period.

Sims Says It's Closed

(By Associated Press)

Newport, R. I., June 25—Admiral Sims returned today to his desk in the naval war college of which he is president. He said the matter of his London speech is closed. "I have no further comment whatever," he said.

All Found Guilty

(By Associated Press)

Toledo, O., June 25—All defendants in million dollar post-office robbery, except Charles Furrier and John J. Epps, were found guilty in federal court here today. Sentence was deferred.

Attention, American Legion

Corporal Walter R. Robinson, of Valley View, who lost his life in France, will be buried here Sunday, June 26. Members of Jesse M. Dykes Post are requested to assemble at club at 1:30 p. m., in uniform.—Chas. R. George.

Mrs. John Howell, of Clark county, was called to Richmond by the illness of her mother, Mrs. James Crawford.

JIM ALLEN SAYS

(In Cynthia Democrat)

We agree with Governor Morrow that he is a sorry Governor.

About the only price that has really come down in Kentucky is that of human life in Louisville.

Notice of our Republican exchanges are not saying anything about the release of Frank Blair from the Frankfort penitentiary on solicitation of Maurice Galvin. Haven't they heard of it?

The Hartford Current declares life in a small town is so monotonous that a man is liable to break loose any time regardless of consequences. Perhaps that explains John Fallis at Frankfort.

Snake Charmers of Ceylon at Work

Here is an unusually interesting photograph of three snake charmers of Ceylon at their churning. The snakes standing erect are the famous cobras of India and Ceylon. The large one lying at full length is a Ceylon python.
